His salary was $300--one hundred of this only from the people, one-fourth of the one hundred in produce; $200 from the American Home Missionary Society, Mr. Turner acting as agent of the Society in the new Territory. In 1843 came the Iowa Band, and they came saying: Please God, we will spend our lives in Iowa. They found stalwart pioneer missionaries of the American Home Missionary Society already on the ground--such men as Asa Turner, Julius A. Reed, Reuben (Jaylord, John C. Holbrook, and Oliver Emerson. They found also thirteen home missionary churches already organized; but they also found some 40,000 people, in scattered settlements up and down the river, almost totally destitute of the bread of life. November 5, 1843, seven of the band were ordained at Denmark, in the building represented by the accompanying cut, the first Congregational meeting-house in Iowa. For the most part the brethren of the band had no opportunity to build upon another mans foundation. They went out to make churches for themselves. How were they supported in this church planting work? For years almost entirely by friends in the East, through the American Home Missionary Society. They came to stay. Five of the band are living still, four of them in Iowa. Father Harvey Adams is living with a daughter in New Hampton. Brother Ephraim Adams resides at Waterloo, the wife of his youth still spared to him. Dr. William Salter is now in the forty-eighth year of his pastorate at Burlington. (He has an associate.) Dr. Alden B. Robbins came to Muscatine in 1843. He is still in Muscatine. For the past few years he has been relieved of the burdens of the pastorate, but he is still pastor emeritus....
