

Best Celtic Jokes to Make you Titter

This is a great humorous book for children between the ages of eight to fourteen (and maybe older - much older). The humour comes from the Celtic nations of the UK and Ireland, which include: the Scottish, the Irish, the Welsh and the Cornish people. The Celts have a great capacity for self mocking and it is they themselves who have penned most of these funny and sometimes downright silly jokes. The reader will in addition, gain some insight into how Celtic people think and behave in various situations.
