

Its Not My Fault They Print Them

If I wasn't such a loudmouth, I'd be an enigma. Each week in the pages of the Age, Catherine Deveny tackles the big issues of modern life with hilarity and passion and in her own inimitable style. From 4WD owners to Nick Giannopolous to women who take their husbands name, Deveny isn't backward in coming forward. Its Not My Fault They Print Them collects Deveny's funniest, most biting work, published and unpublishable (till now). Bound to spark heated debate and riotous laughter, it includes her views on elective caesareans, private education, McLeods Daughters, Sam Newman and much, much more. Prepare to be tickled, cajoled, outraged, baited and amused. The most memorable flash of the Beaconsfield mining disaster coverage for me was the moment I saw Eddie McGuire down at the Beaconsfield Pub holding a beer and saying mate a lot. Like many people, my first thought was, Haven't these people been through enough? Catherine Deveny is a television comedy writer, comedian, author, social commentator and broadcaster well known for her work as columnist with the Age newspaper and as an ABC regular.
