

A Cheshire Way of Life

"A Cheshire Way of Life"

Ivor Goolding

This is the autobiography of Ivor Goolding and a tale of the changes in rural Cheshire. Born in Sale, Manchester in 1937, the story is about growing up in Cheshire villages and towns from the early 1940s to the early 1960s. His father being a policeman, plodding beat for over 25 years, retiring at Ellesmere Port as a Sergeant. A strict disciplinarian and prone to very quick mood changes. Ivor joined Rolls Royce as an apprentice in engineering eventually finishing at Castrol Oil, Ellesmere Port. After completing his apprenticeship, it was straight into the Army for National service with The Royal Welch Fusiliers in 1959-61 and a spell as a professional footballer before setting to family life. This is a gentle tale set in changing times.
