

Photographics/Fotografias

Film posters, billboards, election publicity... urban graphic elements. A fresco of our world today that reflects our styles of dress, our leisure activities, the way we think. Photography of today that thinks in the future. Such are the images of Julio Lopez Sagar. Snapshots that portray the everyday but with a powerful and clearly apparent documentary charge that grows richer with the passage of time. Through diverse urban graphic elements Sagar dissects our society and leaves for future generations a fresco of our world today that reflects our styles of dress, our leisure activities or the way we think.
