

Places We Never Went; A Series of Imaginary Events

Aliza Wiseman has an imaginary friend she affectionately refers to as Orso. Together, they do unexpected things... I created this series of romantic events that never actually happened because, in the midst of my divorce, I didn't want to date - didn't want just any old Tom, Dick or Harry, as my mother would say. So, I decided to go out with Orso. Orso is everything a woman could want and then some. He's got magic and pizzazz. He's kind, smart, fun and has a great sense of humor. There's not another one like him, on this I stake my life. I hope this series inspires you to laugh and feel good. I hope it is a reminder to you (as it was to me) that you never can tell what great joy may be lurking just around the corner in life. Aliza Wiseman is the granddaughter of Al Wiseman, ghost cartoonist for Dennis The Menace. This is the first of more to come, in her new life as author. Aliza has three children and is the designer / owner of Maiden America (www.MaidenUS.com).
